The SGI Advantage

War, terrorism, criminal activity, and workplace violence...the list of security-related worries preoccupying today's society seems to grow each year. The world is changing. Complacency has never been wise, and at a time of increasing uncertainty, it has become outright dangerous and irresponsible. Solutions Group International (SGI) was created to provide Specialized Security Services, Law Enforcement & Military Tactical Training, Threat Matrix & Vulnerability Assessments, Leading-edge Anti-Terrorism and Counter-Terrorism Applications, and Investigations to the Law Enforcement, Military, Entertainment & Film Industry, Security, Government, and Corporate Sectors worldwide.

We are uniquely capable of providing our clients with a variety of specialized protective services, complex investigations, and a multitude of customized training. SGI offers comprehensive security plans, and cutting-edge instruction in a variety of tactical training courses specifically designed to meet the diverse needs of our clientele. In order to respond to these needs with the highest level of quality service, SGI has established eight distinct divisions within our organization, each with developed policies and operational guidelines.

Our web-based workforce management system allows our management team to integrate personnel scheduling, accounting, and account performance analysis. SGI is very proficient in account transition, rapidly becoming familiar with the client's needs, processes, policies and systems. We are able to perform this function in a seamless and transparent manner while maintaining complete organizational integrity. The screening, selection and training of SGI personnel are critical to the company's successful track record and long standing relationships with our client's.

The SGI selection process includes an initial assessment, thorough background check, and completion of a mandatory 40-hour security-training program developed by SGI. Our comprehensive training program is in addition to any state mandates required for the services we provide. Our program enables us to assure our clients that SGI security personnel exceed industry standards and are capable of providing them with the highest level of quality service.

This truly sets us apart from any other security service provider in the country. In addition, SGI is able to increase personnel retention and minimize attrition as a result of our generous compensation and benefits package.

SGI is a U.S. Department of State Diplomatic Security Service Provider
